

Navesink Maritime Heritage Association Privacy Policy

This policy explains what types of information are collected by our website, navesinkmaritime.org, and how the Navesink Maritime Heritage Association (Association) uses this information.

The Association does not sell nor actively seek to share or use individual contact information (including the personal information of any donor) for any purpose other than in support of its activities. However, the Association makes no guarantees against the disclosure of such information, as certain information may be, for instance, automatically gathered or stored by this website, or be required to be disclosed by legal process. Also, the Association may occasionally send donor mailings on behalf of other organizations, but we do not share our contact database with those organizations.

What Personally Identifiable Information is Collected

Individuals who register for a presentation, event, program, or other activity on navesinkmaritime.org and individuals who sign up to receive Association e-communications voluntarily provide us with contact information: name, address, and e-mail address, plus additional activity-specific information. We will use this information for specific, limited purposes. If you do not wish to receive our messages please send an email to contact@navesinkmaritime.org. Note that if you register for another activity your information will be stored again.

If you need to update your contact information, please send an email with the new information to contact@navesinkmaritime.org.

IP Addresses

The Association uses your IP address to help diagnose problems with our website, to administer navesinkmaritime.org, and for statistical metrics used to track website visitor traffic. We do not share your IP address.

Cookies

navesinkmaritime.org uses "cookie" messages to automatically help provide better services. They remind us who you are and your preferences for our website based on what you've done and told us before. The "cookie" is placed on your computer and is read when you come back to our website. They let us track your usage of navesinkmaritime.org so we know which parts of our sites are most popular. You can reject cookies or cancel them by updating your Web browser accordingly.

How Your Information May Be Used

We use your personal information to provide you with personalized service: to send email alerts to you; to answer your requests; to process your membership application; to notify you of upcoming activities; to provide links to our Zoom presentations; and on occasion forward information from other organizations (who will not be provided your information). We may also use your information to track visitors to our website, which lets us see which of our features are the most popular so we can better serve our users' needs.

External Links

navesinkmaritime.org includes links to external websites. The Association is not responsible for their privacy practices nor the content of external websites. Your use of any linked website is solely at your own risk.

Modifications

We may amend this privacy policy from time to time; please review it periodically. We maintain the option to modify this privacy at any time by electronic notice posted on our website. Your continued use of our website after the date that such notices are posted will be deemed to be your agreement to the changed terms.
